Columbus. Jan. 10 - Brief, simple iningural ceremonies marked the inducion of Gov. Vic Donahey into his third erm bere this afternoon as chief exerutive of the Buckeye State. The occasion was unique in two respects. It was the first time that a governor of Ohio started upon his third ensecutive term. It was the first time, also, that a gubernatorial inauguration in this state was radiocast. As a result of the broadcasting, Corernor Donahey addressed the largest audience that ever beard the imaggiral address of an Ohio governor. Other newly-elected state officials also, were inducted into office here to duy. What to do with it-

You may have one or more pieces, or even suites, of old-fashioned furniture about the house. Most families have.

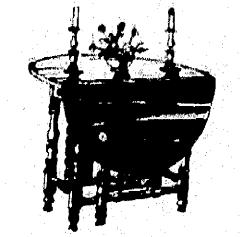

Nearly all of this kind of furniture is wellmade, comfortable and has given splendid service - possibly for years.

HOWEVER, as we all know, it does not "belong" any more - and what to do with it is the problem. It is too good to throw away; one often does not want to store it even if room is available; and often there are reasons why one does not give it away.

We remind you that such old-fashioned furniture represents actual cash money that you can turn in as part payment on new, stylish pieces, or suites.

Phone 2238 or drop in at the store some time if you wish more particulars as to fust how we handle this:

The Chicago Federation of Labor is planning the construction of a seventy-story building in the Windy City as a cost of $75,000.000. When labor is in position even seriously to think of such a structure, to say nothing of hailding it, we have an explanation of why Communists are unable to spread the Bolshewiki doctrine in the ranks of organized labor.

The chief investigator of the comptroller general has told the senate that Washington coal dealers profiteered during the authracite strike. But why the limitation, either as to time or locality?

"Senators who acquire the investigating habit never recover," says the Washington Star. "Investigation is as unconquerable as the cross-word habit." That's not the sad phase of it. As a pernicious liabit, it is much worse than the cross-word. We never heard of the latter being prompted and fed by enty upite and malice, and it never works harm save to those who succumb to it.

Another Royal Visitor.

.: If the present trend continues much longer. visits by representatives of royalty are liable soon to become commonplace in this country. The Prince of Welos was a visitor of comparatively recent date. Then came the Crown Prince and Princess of Japan-now to all intents and purposes the emperor and empress of the Nipponese. The Crown Prince and Princess of Sweden were our next royal visitors. They were followed by Queen Marie, of Roumania and her son and daughter. A few days age a brother of the present Japanese emperor reached our shores, enroute homeward to participate in the obsequies of the late emperor, his father, and now we have with us Prince William, second son of the king and queen of Sweden, who arrived on the France of the French line last Wednesday.

Unlike our other royal visitors of recent date, Prince William, who is a poot, playwright, dramatic critic, newspaper worker, biggame hunter and explorer, comes as a private citizen on a lecture engagement. "I have to make my living like the rest of you," he told reporters, who met him at quarantine, after women, and then we got to wondering regard-

. Those who have read the prince's stories of hig-game hunting and exploration, either in Book or magazine form, know that he is an extention to the regulation run of big-game hunters-and commendably so-in that he has 'ishot'' most of his big game with a camera. and although he does not say so, it takes far more courage to bunt hig gamo with a camera than is required in slaying big game with a gun. "I think it a shame to kill these beautiful animals," he has said in his writings. : While here, the prince will lecture chiefly on his hupting trip in Africa, on which his hunting was done chiefly with a moving-picture camera, the views thus taken being used to illustrate his lecture. *We do not mind saying that we believe we would enjoy such a lecture, thus illustrated. It strikes us that we would like to get a line such as his lecture would give on African wild life, a lecture delivered by one who hunts wild life that he may see and study it in its natural habitat and not to satisfy the far-too-common tust for killing.

No Man Knows His Tax Burden.

It is seriously to be que money it here is a citizen of Marion not a dependent a transaction the size of the tax burden he is been no. He may know what he is paying on a dire t tax on realty, personalty and income it any above the exemption, but beyond that at is largely RUPHEWOCK.

Some weeks since we overseard a local effizen refer to the tax burden being boing by our public utilities. Apparently be aidn't realize that a public utility does not bear a tax burden; that it merely passes it along and that he, as a patron of the public builts, is bearing what he assumed was the utility's burden. The man who ower a home and lives in it pays taxes and he pays taxes on all he uses and all he consumer in that home, but the man, firm or corporation selling dorsn't pay taxes. The tax is merely passed along to the ultimate consumer, and it doesn't matter whether the articles sold are peanuts or popcorn, threshing machines or steam shovels. And so it is with the public utilities selling service. It's the man who buys the service. whether it be light, power, water, wire, phone or transportation who pays the taxes. The utilities simply pass it along. Is there question of this? Then give attention, please, to the following extract from a statement issued ight week by the "Ohio Committee on Public Utility Information:"

"Because the public utility companies base no other sources of revenue than the rates they charge for their services, it becessarily follows that whatever taxes are levied on them are ineffect tax levies on the electric light and nower, rus and telephone users and electric railway ilders of the slate.

"During 1926, seventeen cents out of every dollar which the consumer paid for gas went three dollars a month, you paid $6.12 in taxes during the year, if your electric light bill averaged three dollars a month, you hald $3.36 in taxes during the year. If your telephone bill averaged three dollars a month, you paid $3.96 in taxon during the year. For every dime you put in electric rallway fare boxes, one cent went for taxes; if you rode the electric cars twice s day, you paid during the year between six dollars and seven dollars in taxes." Between 1921 and 1926 the total taxes collocted from the public utilities of Ohio and by them passed on to their patrons for payment increased almost $6,000.000. The amount was $18,512,949.38 in 1921; the next year, 1922, it was $19,789,123 10; in 1923 it was $21,-318,210.78; in 1924 it was $20,154,791 00; in 1925 it was $23,957,675 23 and last year it was $24,657,171.52. In other words, the taxes assessed against the public utilities of Oblofrom 1921 to 1926, inclusive, and paid by their patrons were increased approximately thirty-

The local citizen who spoke of the tax hurden borne by public utilities, if he spoke in good faith, may have thought that they bore more than their fare share, but he was mistaken, just as are those who labor under the delusion that public utilities can be "stung" in the way of taxes. The popularity of Lucky Strikes among those who sing is because these cigarettes never irritate the throat, also because they give greater enjoyment.

The Thrilling Voice of Scotti

ANTONIO SCOTTI, famous baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York City, is very careful of his voice and therefore tecommends Lucky Strike.

Lucky Strikes have become the favorites of men whose priceless voices thrill their audiences, as they have with the millions, because, first, they afford greater enjoyment and second, they are certain not to irritate even the most sensitive throat.

The world's finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged, perfectly blended, give Lucky Strikes their richer flavor.

But in addition, a costly extra process—toasting for 45 minutes-develops the hidden flavors of the choicest tobaccos and at the same time removes all "bite" and harshness.

Smoke Lucky Strike: They give added pleasure - you'll like them.
